Introduction

A DUOLINGO product extension

Connects users who are at similar levels of proficiency.

This product aims to make learning a new language more enjoyable and interesting.

Mission Statement

Duo-Connect is here to connect users around the globe to make learning engaging, fun, and effective wherever they are.

Vision Statement

Our goal is to give everyone access to learning by engaging in conversations through technology.

Solution

Would you be interested in the feature to connect world-wide with users on the same level

Based on our survey, we concluded that the best solution to differentiate ourselves from our competitors and make learning engaging is to create a product extension that connects users to practice through virtual conversations.

Target Customers

Duolingo's target customers are young people who wish to make learning a language exciting and part of their daily routine. They want a funny, insightful, and personal learning experience but don't have the means to register for a language course.

DuoConnect will expand Duolingo's target audience. DuoConnect is for young students, the technologically savvy, and those who want to learn a second language by interacting with other students but don't have the means to pay for a language course or private tutors.
